

+ A MESSAGE FROM FEMANONFATAL +

For Far too long we were made to stand behind the backs of those who thought they can control our voice. That it was their place to tell us how to talk, what to wear and who to fuck, when and how to vote, what defines a woman and what is equality. They have never seen us as equals! They silenced us, defending themselves in a public eye and held panels to talk about our reproductive right and out bodies.

+ F e m A n o n F a t a l +

We raise the flag of our sisters around the world in solidarity with women who fought, who were prosecuted and died for us to have a voice today. For women who stand shoulder to shoulder at protests and rallies, who educate and support one another, who fight for equal pay and a right to choose, who understand the struggle of childcare and a choice of not having children. Who do not victimise but praise women's courage to speak out, who listen, who fight, who are selfless and open-minded. For every girl and every woman around the world who knows the struggle of womanhood. Women who are being force into marriages, raped, harassed, women who live with trauma of genital mutilation. Women who are forbidden to make their own decision and are force fed lies about the existence of equality. Women who are being brainwashed by society to the point of becoming anti-feminist.

We Had Enough!

- For those who caged women in basements, for sex tourists.
- For those who sold us like property in advertisement or sex industry, for those who see women only as servants to their sexual fantasies or agendas.
 - For those who fear us so they beat and silence us..
- For those who think this is all it takes to be a man, that use their masculinity to rape, maim, torture and control women.
 - For those who prey on children and the fragile.
- To sex traffickers - To those we have only one thing to say:
